Protester with handmaidens holds tablets outside Belfast courts

Northern Ireland will be the only part of the UK and Ireland where abortion is illegal when the Eighth Amendment is repealed.

Earlier today, protesters used the micro robot to deliver Mifepristone tablets to three women at the rally.

People watched as three women gathered in a circle as the robot arrived. They then took the tablets, prescribed to them by a Dutch doctor.

The rest of the pills and the robot were then handed over to officers by the medic.
