Women On Waves sends a drone medication abortion to Poland

By Dirkje van Bennekom on June 23, 2015 at 19:31 in the category Female (s) Body & Life.

Women on Waves, known for their boat abortion and the use of the abortion pill instead of curettage now goes into the air.

The organization will send a 'abortion drone' to Poland, from the German border town of Frankfurt an der Oder.

The small unmanned aircraft provides just over the border on abortion pills, which are strictly forbidden in Roman Catholic Poland.

Women can with the pills mifepristone and misoprostol combination pregnancy up to 9 weeks late break itself.

In 2003, Women on Waves for the first time with the abortion ship to Poland, but "since then, nothing has changed in the area of abortion," said founder Rebecca Gomperts in the AD.

She estimates that there are 240,000 pregnancies are aborted every year in Poland, of which the majority is illegal and unsafe executed. Besides the possibility to safely perform abortions, there is also an urgent need for sex education and easy access to all forms of contraception, including sterilization. High time for change, says the organization.
