The PSNI seized a robot that was intended to deliver abortion pills to women in Northern Ireland. The incident took place outside Laganside Courthouse in Belfast on Thursday afternoon. A number of people gathered outside the court to protest against the lack of access to abortion rights in Northern Ireland. The protest was also attended by anti-abortion campaigners Precious Life. The robot was part of the Bus4Choice run by social feminist organisation Rosa NI with the support of web-based abortion pills provider Women on Web and Women on Waves. The group is holding protests across Northern Ireland on Thursday. The women, who would not disclose their identity or whether they were pregnant, had intended to challenge the law by taking the pills outside the courthouse. The pills were be delivered by a remote control robot. A doctor was intending to counsel women remotely, as the robots were operated from the Netherlands in a bid to avoid breaking the law....
