Abortion Reform: A Major Human Rights & Public Health Issue

Amnesty International will host a panel discussion exploring the need for abortion reform as a major human rights and public health issue. Existing laws in Northern Ireland are amongst the most restrictive and punitive in Europe, and violate women & girl's human rights. The panel will be followed by a question and answer session.

Wednesday 22 June | 6.30pm | The MAC

The panel will include:

Rebecca Gomperts, MD

Founder, Women on Waves & Women on the Web

Laura McMahon, LLB, LLM

Barrister, Northern Ireland Human Rights Commission re application for judicial review & re law on termination of pregnancy in Northern Ireland

Eunice J Minford, FRCG

Northern Ireland Surgeon & Abortion activist

Chaired by Michelle Beyers, PhD

Campaigner, Amnesty International

The panel discussion is free and open to the public
